Windows Phone 8

The 'Windows phone 8' by Microsoft has just been announced, providing an integrated system that focuses on an enhanced user interface and core integration with the windows 8 operating system and the company's new 'wallet' mobile payment service.

Following the design aesthetic of 'metro', the 'windows phone 8' start screen features movable, customizable tiles in small, medium, and large sizes. each is capable of showcasing custom content-- live tiles for specific apps or user-specified contact or group boxes, for example, alongside app icons. semantic zoom facilitates navigation by offering a very far removed view of all active tiles and icons.

For software, the device features native code sharing with the upcoming windows 8 operating system. it is also integrated with microsoft's just-announced 'wallet' NFC mobile payments system, which also stores cards and coupons. maps on the phone are powered by nokia, offering the ability to work offline.

Hiya Yashin..For all the Teen Spirit readers out there tell us abit about yourselves.

We are Yashin. A heavy rock/alternative band from Glasgow, Scotland. We have been a band for around 3 or 4 years and have just released our second album 'We Created a Monster'.

What genre of music would you put yourselves under?

Rock/Metal/Alternative

And what has been your career highlight to date?

Touring the UK and Europe with Limp Bizkit, Kev even got to get up to sing with them, they're his favorite band of all time so it was mind blowing for him, lovely people still making crowds go insane, great lessons learned all round.

What do you want to say to all your fans and supporters out there? - Basically without being corny, thanks for all the support thus far. Please keep up the support and keep this band going. And make sure you grab a copy of the new album either from theyashin.com or itunes. If you dare to download it illegally we shall be sending Andy Mcshane(bass) and Chris Jericho round to sort you out....remember Andy does Yoga!!!

Many say touring is all about the 3 Bs.. beer, babes and bad places to sleep.. What has touring really been like?

As the band has progressed and grown touring has become more comfortable. However regardless of sleeping in nice hotels or on someones cooker, yes cooker...its always been fun. We are still serving our apprenticeship but would like to think the tougher times are behind us.

Your favourite venue/place/festival you've played?

Hamburg Stadepark.

If you could collab with one person/band who would it be and why?

It would be Will.i.am....we need some of that vocoder shit in our tunes...thats what's missing! Oh and he could hook us up with Chery! Cole, just maybe!

When you boys are jamming does the songs come naturally or does it take a while to really get the sound your looking for?

A lot of bands 'jam', we're not a blues band! When we hit the studio to work on a new song we have our parts worked out already. We tend to do the core of the writing at the bedroom stage. Those in bands will know what we mean.

If you could plan your destiny where would you lead yourselves to?

Getting the band to a level where Yashin is a household name. Everyone knows who Guns n Roses and Metallica are, thats the dream.

Any embarrassing things we should know?

Andy as currently taken up Yoga. He is about as flexible as an iron bar!

2013 mercedes-benz SLS AMG GT

The 2013 mercedes-benz SLS AMG GT features heightened dynamics by offering an enhanced maximum output of its 6.3-liter V8 front mid-engine which has been increased to 583 hp (435 kW) at 6800 rpm, while maximum torque is maintained at 479 lb / ft at 4750 rpm; a re-calibrated AMG speedshift DCT 7-speed sports transmission; and a redeveloped AMG adaptive suspension that elevates the vehicle's profile even further. these technical changes yield a 0-60 mph acceleration time of 3.6 seconds with a maximum speed of 197 mph thanks to a newly developed gear change logic and optimized transmission control which shortens this reaction time during shifts. when doing so manually via alloy shift paddles, the transitions are remarkably a lot cleaner and quicker than before. this is a result of a modified engine mapping profile which changes engine torque delivered in manual mode, making the switch even quicker than previously.

Inside of the SLS is to die for!

teen spint

The new AMG adaptive performance suspension enhances the vehicles 'sportiness' combining a suspension layout of twin aluminium wishbones featuring a stiffer and more aggressive spring and damper tuning for a more dynamic feel. its control algorithm reacts best to fluctuations in the road surface with a tendency towards lower / softer damp force levels.

Available both as a coupe or roadster, the sportcar's masculine aesthetic is distinguished by darkened headlamp and tail light lenses, a unique wheel color and red-painted brake calipers. the wing-shaped cross fins and star recess in the radiator grille are given a new high-gloss black finish as well as the exterior mirrors and fins located on the hood and front fenders.

Hiya Mayday Parade..For all the Teen Spirit readers out there tell us a bit about yourselves.

What genre of music would you put yourselves under?

I always say emo or pop rock. Those are both safe bets. Some people cringe at the word emo but I embrace it. That's what it is.

You've have numerous insane gigs but what has been your career highlight to date?

Any international touring we have done is always a huge deal. Especially the first time we went to Japan or Singapore. Also any sold out show is always awesome.

Many say touring is all about the 3 Bs.. beer, babes and bad places to sleep.. What has touring really been like for you guys?

Well I'd say that now we have limited that to just beer. When we first started touring in a van we always slept in bad places. Now that we are in a bus and we all have girlfriends that leaves only beer. But that's still a big b.

You must have played 100s of venues worldwide but which was your favourite venue/place/festival you've played to date?

Warped tour is always incredible just because of the novelty of it. Starland ballroom in new jersey is great. Brixton academy in London is awesome. We played earls court once in London and that was pretty crazy.

Mayday Parade!

If you could collab with one person/band who would it be and why?

I'd say maybe Pierce the Veil or Four Year Strong. As a band we all love their music.

When you boys are jamming does the songs come naturally or does it take a while to really get the sound your looking for?

It kind of comes naturally. We just kind of let everyone do what they do. Jake will come up with a beat for the skeleton o a song and then we all just add our parts on top of that and filter down ideas to the best.

If you could plan your destiny where would you lead yourselves to?

Just to be able to tour and be successful in the future.

Any embarrassing things we should know?

I fell off stage once. I felt like I almost got a concussion.

ASTON MARTIN

Aston Martin DB7 transformed into a Zagato

Built by UK-based bespoke auto producers evanta motor company to commemorate the 50th anniversary of the aston martin zagato, the 'DB4 GT zagato evocation' is actually a modern, V12-engine DB7 car that has been converted to resemble the iconic zagato. The one-off car features an 'oxblood red hide' interior with a vintage DB4 dashboard and seats, while retaining the modern conveniences of air-conditioning, airbags, remote controlled doors, and heated seats. It's one-piece body shell is composed of carbon fiber and kevlar, finished in solent silver paint, with 16-inch wire wheels. Evanta notes that any commissioned models of the 'evocation' will feature pedal lengths and other modifications custom-tailored to the client. Evanta posted an abbreviated photo journal of the making-of the 'evocation'.

Smartpet Robotic iPhone Dog

'Smartpet' by Japanese producers bandai transforms users' iPhones into robotic puppies, capable of moving and responding to voice and gestural interactions. after an initial march announcement, 'Smartpet' is now available in japan, and currently on exhibition as part of the Tokyo international toy show.

The robotic pet-- powered by an iPhone app-- features over 100 different facial animations; users can also take photographs of themselves, to be used for their pet. when connected to the dog-shaped base, the puppy can walk, sit, sing and dance, do tricks, and wag its tail. It utilizes the iPhone's front camera for gestural recognition, and users can also interact with and feed their pet on the touchscreen. At the same time, the mobile device is still utilizable for calls, messaging, and other functions.

The aim of Burn Out Festival is big bands in a small venue.

We wanted to take a different approach to the festivals. Normally you're in a field with hundreds / thousands of other people, all sharing that same moment. We wanted to make it a bit more special.

So we have taken 26 of the best up and coming local and national bands and 16 of the best acoustic artists and put it in a 200 capacity venue for a real intimate experience.

And we've managed this with no clashes. So you can watch every band / act you've come to see!

Due to the amount of acts playing we are only releasing 150 tickets per day.

QUINTESSENTIAL FASHION

WWW.QUINTESSENTIALF.COM

Hiya..For all the Teen Spirit readers out there tell us a bit about yourselves.

What genre of music would you put yourselves under?

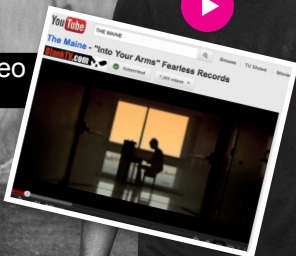

No matter how you dress it up, it's music. But if we had to categorize it we'd say rock music.

You must have had some insane experiences..what has been your career highlight to date?

It's hard to pinpoint one exact moment that stands out above the rest, but this past year and a half has been pretty surreal. We got to visit South America for the first time, we went on the road with Taking Back Sunday, and just finished up our second headlining run. It all makes me that much more excited for the future.

THE MAINE

Many say touring is all about the 3 Bs.. beer, babes and bad places to sleep.. What has touring really been like?

Touring is a wild experience. Hygiene and sleep are the two areas of the tour life that tend to lack, but that's where the beer helps.

Traveling around you guys will have been to some awesome places..what was your favourite venue/place/festival you've played?

Our favorite place based off of always wanting to visit would be Australia. We've been there twice now, so I need to start thinking of a new place I'd like to see for the first time.

If you could collab with one person/band who would it be and why?

If we could just meet Neil Young I could die happy. He is arguably one of the greatest American songwriters of all time in my opinion, and to be able to pick his brain would be dreamlike.

When you boys are jamming does the songs come naturally or does it take a while to really get the sound your looking for?

If we are in a good headspace and "vibing" a song will essentially write itself, if not it can take a while until it feels right.

If you could plan your destiny where would you lead yourselves to?

To a place of personal integrity and strong character where everyone has the opportunity to decide for themselves how they feel about our music.

Any embarrassing things we should know?

I have 13 toes. And I sleep with a nightlight.

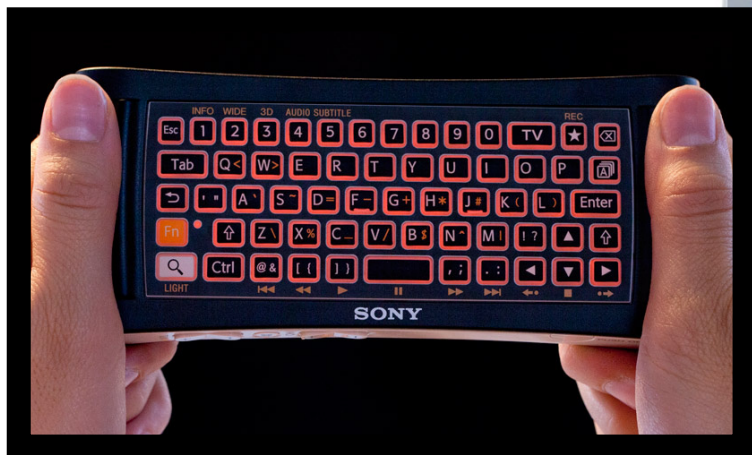

Why you love Teen Spirit?

I love women. I love tattoos. I love women with tattoos. I love music. And Teen Spirit does too.

What do you want to say to all your fans and supporters out there? Thank you so much for the continued support. We are forever in your debt. -John and The Maine Any other words: Thanks for the opportunity!

by Sony

Google and Sony have teamed up to create 'Google TV' which was originally introduced in January at CES 2012. By combining the TV and internet together, the console will enable users to easily browse for their favorite content through the freedom of the internet and Google Chrome at high speeds. Incorporating a dual-sided controller allows for simultaneous access to a full keyboard for searching and checking up on social media updates.

The Blu-ray disc player optional add-on includes a universal remote that integrates voice controls, and has a motion sensor for playing games. Priced at 200 euros, pre-orders begin in July online at Sony Europe.

- Hiya Phil, for all the Teen Spirit viewers out there that might not know you, tell us abit about yourself.

I'm an artist and a writer. I work on comics, concept art, T-shirt design, artwork for bands, games and generally just try to find and create appealing and inspiring things to work on. I'm also a co-founder and artist at the streetwear label Ribcage Customs.

- How would you describe your design/artwork?...what genre would you put it under if you had to?

I think my style is a mixture of British heavy metal comic art and manga, but maybe that's just me seeing my influences. To other people it could look like something completely different.

• Phil McDermott

Illustration is in his blood!

teen spirit

FMS

- Many artists dream of their work being on the big stage. What's your career highlight to date?

Well, producing an art print for Teen Spirit magazine of course. But it's stuff like spotting strangers wearing T-shirts that I've designed— that is probably still the biggest pat on the back in that sense. And not only is it a regular public showing for the artwork, but someone being into it enough to wear it on their chest is a big honour.

- When starting a piece, what feeling do you get..excitement, enjoyment? and when it's done and you see the final piece..is that a good moment?

Yeah the start is all excitement, inspiration and enthusiasm, and when I reach the end, if it's gone well, there's a great sense of achievement and satisfaction. It's just the painful, tedious part in between that I need to find a way around.

- Have you ever gotten a piece where you dread it or do you look forward to most pieces?

If I feel anything like dread at the thought of starting a piece of art, then it's probably a piece of art I shouldn't do. So if a brief doesn't interest me in some way, I don't take it on. If you're lucky you can make a living through your artwork, but I don't think it should ever feel like a job.

- What projects have you done in the past and which are you doing atm?

I've recently finished some new designs for Ribcage Customs that I'm looking forward to seeing out there. Right now I'm starting work on a teaser trailer for a motion comic series I've had in the works for a while called 'Arcis - The final concept of liberty.'

- Art is all about freedom of the mind. Would this be a dream job for yourself?

It's something I started doing just because I wanted to see the ideas in my head on paper, so it's probably more of an impulse than a career choice. If you feel that way, and you can convince people to pay you to do what you were doing anyway, that's the only way to earn money and stay sane.

Pocket and Co

Who wants to buy a pocket?? Big pockets, medium pockets, small pockets all for sale at excellent prices. We won't be beaten on prices of pockets, fuck all the other pocket companies as we are the best! By now you've probably guessed that this is not what Pocket and Co are all about, of course they do sell pocket tee's but that is not all, they sell fucking awesome attire for the style nation, check it out!!

Established in 2012, Pocket and Co immediately set about creating vintage inspired clothing coupled with a clean modern edge and in turn moved towards their goal of bringing their clothing to an accelerating fashion-forward niche market. In May 2012 the label released their much anticipated first collection featuring some excellent examples of awesome tees; of course these guys worked their own version of the iconic pocket tee which is just as well when you consider the name, however this was not all that came with their first release, it also included the excellent 'Iconic' tee which features an oversize Pocket and Co logo print, the excellent 'We Take Photos' tee and finally the brilliant 'Everyday Wear' tee! Over the last couple of weeks Pocket and Co have added a couple of extras to their first collection, one of which is the extremely patriotic 'True Brit' tee which is perfect not only in this Jubilee year but also right in time for the Olympics!!

After a successful release all round, the next few months will see Pocket and Co working hard towards their next big release which is sure to include some excellent limited edition pieces aswell as the same great bold design that have seen them gain so much popularity in their first few months as a label. I can't wait to see what the future hold for Pocket and Co, so make sure you keep up-dated through their social media avenues!

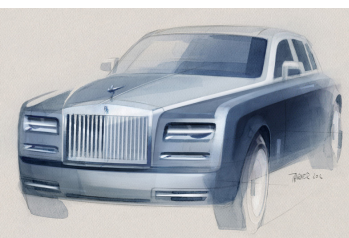

Rolls-Royce Phantom Series II

at New Manhattan Showroom

On the occasion of the opening of its newly expanded showroom in new york city, rolls-royce motor cars presents the 2013 'phantom series ii' vehicle, the first design overhaul of the 'phantom' since 2003. first exhibited as a concept at geneva motor show 2012, the new model features full LED rectangular headlights and restyled bumpers, set upon the classic rolls-royce grille. an 8-speed automatic gearbox combines with rear-wheel drive to decrease CO2 emissions, as well as fuel consumption by a reported 10%.

The interior features updated infotainment and navigation system, including 3D maps and guided tours. Optionally outfitted in its trunk is a woodlain storage unit comprising a drink cooler and glasses compartment.

The manhattan showroom follows a just-opened long island center for rolls-royce, which is the company's largest in north america. Both showrooms feature an increased emphasis on the 'bespoke lounge' wherein prospective clients can browse leather, colour, and trim samples to customize their car.

Adidas Originals

OC Dress Rubber

To celebrate the London 2012 Summer Olympic Games adidas Originals teams up with New York based store Opening Ceremony to create a premium capsule collection.

The collection is very playful and exuberant and Opening Ceremony have played a lot with prints, shapes and silhouettes from the 90's sportswear. In the collection we can see a lot of elements from sports like swimming and cycling, we can find printed bathing suits and clever takes on adidas Originals footwear - of course everything has a street attitude.

WEAREFICTION

Hiya We are Fiction..For all the Teen Spirit readers out there tell us a bit about yourselves.

Hil We are a rock band from Peterborough, UK consisting of five good mates who all share similar outlooks on life. We write music about love, life, the ups, the downs and everything in between.

What genre of music would you put yourselves under?

This changes from song to song, I'd say in the whole scheme of things we are a rock band.

And what has been your career highlight to date?

I couldn't name one particular highlight, there have been so many. However, every moment a song first gets written, every time we first hear that song in the studio, every time we first watch a video we've spent months working on and every time we step out on stage and play our music to the people we love. Each of these moments is particularly special.

Your favourite venue/place/festival you've played?

I'm pretty sure each of us would have a different answer to this question, seen as I [Andi Scott Shaw] am answering on behalf of us as a band. I'm going to go ahead and say that 'Hit The Deck' festival 2011 was our best venue, place and festival we've played so far. Collectively we had a great time both playing and hanging out throughout the day. We all had a lot of fun, some might say too much fun...

If you could collab with one person/band who would it be and why?

Again, We Are Fiction is made up of five people with radically different tastes in music and artists [something I think contributes to our musical style and writing] so to answer on behalf of us all is difficult. I know as a whole we all enjoy bands/artists like Alexisonfire, Foo Fighters, The Used, Alkaline Trio, so any of those would be great! The reason being, they are all genuine song writers and create and play passionate music which can evoke a number of emotions, something we try to do with our music also.

As for myself though, it'd definitely have to be Prince!

If you could plan your destiny where would you lead yourselves to?

As with anyone who starts a band the initial dreams are usually based on world domination or rock 'stardom'. As you get older, and as your CV of shows, songs and industry experience mounts up, dreams change somewhat. Right now my main goal is to create the best music possible, hopefully something different that stands out above the rest, something that can help people or even change their lives. In the whole scheme of things, to be able to live our lives comfortably playing and writing music is now our collective dream, I'd be more than happy with that.

Any embarrassing things we should know?

Our front man, Phil Barker once laughed too hard and shat himself.

Why you love Teen Spirit?

I like how raw Teen Spirit is, its not drenched in absolute bullshit. Its fun, easy, honest and looks good. [Much how I like my women] Oh yeah, the girls are fiiiiiiiiine also!

What do you want to say to all your fans and supporters out there?

A massive thank you for your continued support and for giving us a reason to keep going. Keep reppin' as you already do, keep telling your friends, family, pets, neighbours the lot; about us, what we're about and help make our family even bigger. You guys are literally THE best people alive and every single one of you is a part of our music and who we are in one way or another. Love x.

WE WILL DESTROY!

EST. 2012

We Will Destroy! Destroy what is the question. Holly Willoughby's back doors? A kebab after a boozy night out on the town?! I'm pretty sure 90% of us would destroy both of these, but We Will Destroy! Is about so much more. We Will Destroy! Is about providing you with affordable battle attire to destroy anything that obstructs your path in achieving greatness in your life!

Founded in March 2012 by two friends from Glasgow, We Will Destroy! Create bold, unique and sometime colourful design that are heavily influenced by 80's comic books, early horror movies, computer games, general destruction and really just life if general. Their first tee, the 'Badge of Horror' was released in May of 2012 and featured the image of what was soon to become the labels main logo. After a successful launch, it wasn't long before We Will Destroy! Were looking to create something a whole lot bigger than a plain black print on a white tee. This journey led them to their second release, the 'Centre of Attention' tee which features a stunning red half-tone print of possibly the creepiest rabbit girl you've ever seen and also includes an inside neck print for that extra bit of class!

Two months on and We Will Destroy! Have got a third tee on their mind which for the moment has remained top secret, so we'll all have to wait to find out what these guys have got up their sleeve. With the tee's taken care of, We Will Destroy! recently turned their focus to their band endorsement programme and after a couple of weeks signed up the fantastic Aurora and the excellent These Little Kings! All in We Will Destroy! are an exciting young label and the next 12 months will be one hell of a ride!!

Now tell us, what would you destroy? Answers on a postcard!

100th UPRAWR

After 2 years dominating their hometown of Birmingham, expanding to London and beginning to book some of the raddest shows in town, UPRAWR celebrated their 100th ever night with an almighty, Jager fuelled explosion.

These guys set their standards high. With theme nights ranging from Frat Party to Jersey Shore, Boats and Hoes (they actually built a boat on the stage) to a Valentine's night with a Patrick Swayze theme, the 100th UPRAWR could only embody a monstrous amalgamation of the party spirit since their opening.

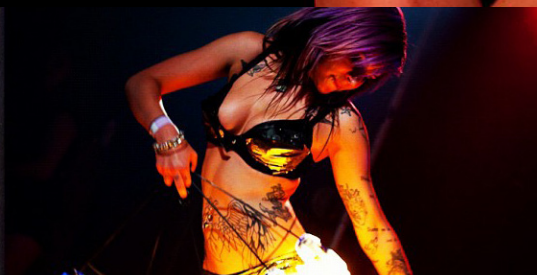

The loyal UPRAWR crowd was out in force, packing The Asylum to the rafters in a humid, pumping mass that somehow just feels good. The dancefloor went crazy when 100 limited edition UPRAWR 100th Anniversary t-shirts were thrown into the crowd. Best friends became intense competitors, only to be sweatily reconciled to the tune of R Kelly's 'Bump 'n' Grind'.

Every 100th person through the doors won a prize from UPRAWR's drinks sponsors, including Agwa, Jagermeister, and Patron. The annihilation of the purpose built Agwa bar probably accounts for the mental frenzy this night became. A highly charged indication that this place is firmly set to stay.

SAY HELLO...IT'S

REBECCA
CROW

teen spint

HEY! So, I guess I should start off by introducing myself; I'm Rebecca Crow. I'm also a SuicideGirl known as Katherine Suicide. I like stupid things, like planking. I like fast cars, but I don't have one. I have an obsession with crows. I do crazy shit with my best friend, don't we all! I also like to eat, breathe and do other sexy things with fire in my performance group called the Cyanide Girls! Hopefully you'll be hearing a lot more of my fiery tales in the near future, but for now let's start with what I've been up to, yeah?

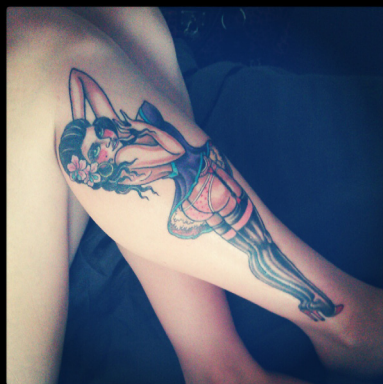

I'm in a music video recently to! The dude isn't so well known, but his music is insanely rad. I think it sounds like Plan B, maybe that's just me... Anyway his name is Mister ST and the track is Through the Lies – fucking check it out!

One of my most recent performances with my Cyanide Girls was at Facedown at the Scala in London. Was pretty sick, we got in trouble with the venue through for going onstage with The Audition and involving fire and water pistols. Boring bums. On the subject of bums, we took a photo of ours and you can now buy signed prints of it, aha! Our most recent show was at a night relaunched called Reloaded at the Facebar – there was firebreathing, pole dancing, angle grinding... we tied a dude to a chair. Generally a sick show. Wanner be that guy? Get to our next show!

Now I'm gonner start going on about the last time I was in LA, so if I get too nostalgic and mushy for you then smash your face into your computer screen – then you won't have to read it anymore and your brains will trickle out your nose thus forgetting all about it. That's not a great idea though – then you'll miss out on all the hot chicks and other dope shit in the mag. So, I'm out in LA with Melissa Clarke, Charlotte Herbert and Jordan Towler. I really hope you know who those girls are or your missing out on a world of face-melting hotness. There was a lot of topless sunbathing, splashing each other in the Jacuzzi, beer and cocktails for breakfast. I ate a shit-load of lucky charms and got a sexy pin-up girl tattooed on my leg to remember my trip. Obviously we shot some mind-blowing photo sets for your enjoyment to. So I pissed away all my money in Sephora (INSANE make-up shop), we ate till we almost died, walked a long Hollywood Boulevard, smoked some shisha (they call it hookah, just sounds like a euphemism for prostitutes to me) shared a bed with Mel Clarke. Yeah, be jealous bitches.

So, on my Tumblr I always get loads of questions and stuff. Usually asking whether I'd date a girl or if removing the electrical tape from my nips hurts (you get used to it). So if you've got a question that's making you itch, throw it over to Teen Spirit or one of my pages and if I think it's interesting or hilarious enough I might stick it in my next column. If that itch is still there after that, you should probably go to the doctors you dirty bastard. Have a super sick month you rad bitches, cya soon! xx

U A L H I N G

To the readers of Teen Spirit who might have not come across yourselves before, Could you introduce yourselves and tell us a fact about each of you.

Hi I'm Ben I play drums. Some people call me Benjamin. I'm Charlie, I play bass. I am the youngest member of the band! My name's Mitch and I play rhythm guitar and sometimes sing in The Ocean's Eyes

Are you guys living the dream atm? and what do you see for the future?

Charlie – Things are great right now, as we are in a position to tour and play in front of good crowds every night, but we still need to work hard day to day to make sure we can do the things we love. So it's a yes and a no. As for future plans, I would like to see us push on and become a little better known around the UK and hopefully beyond that. This means touring a lot more, recording new material and just getting in people's faces. We know how to do that better than most.

Who would you love to do a collab with and why?

Mitch – I would love to have someone I really looked up to during my teens. I think that would be an amazing accomplishment. Someone like Tim Armstrong or Adam Lazzara. I know it's unrealistic but if I could get someone like that to sing on one of our songs my life would be made.

Charlie - I have always said I would love to have Liam Cromby from We Are The Ocean do vocals on a track. For me, the best voice in 'the scene'.

Who were your influences/inspirations when making your tunes?

Mitch - I personally would say no one really influences us as a band. We all love some similar bands in the punk rock scene but we all listen to such different music to one another as well. Many reviews in the past for our live performance and CD's have said each song is different and it's quite hard to actually compare who we sound like. I'm very proud of that, I want to be that type of band. I want to write music we like and enjoy. Not sit down stick on an All Time Low CD and rip off their songs off their songs because they're popular.

Ben – Well they constantly change really. I'm quite into my old emo bands such as Get Up Kids and Sunny Day Real Estate. But like Charlie I love the British scene at the moment so for example Lower Than Atlantis, Don Broco and Deaf Havana. So they all go in the melting pot and what comes out is something that has elements of all those bands.

What has been your career highlight to date?

Charlie – Playing the London Scala on our EP release night or playing a packed out King's College both stand out for me, but getting signed to I Am Mighty Records was my favourite highlight so far, as being recognised and credited for your passion is a huge compliment.

Ben – I think for me, having a CD to be proud of, getting out and touring it, I know a lot of bands don't have the chance to tour very often so I'm very grateful anytime we do. I think seeing peoples reactions to Lost Along The Way has really surprised me, I'm so grateful for everything and anything good that comes our way.

Do you have certain messages you want to get across through your music?

Ben – When writing recently I know Luke has added more and more of a personal stance to his lyrics, but we all just like to have fun and write good overall songs, and I'd hope the music radiates that message. Mitch – Yeah of course! I want our music to make people feel happy and feel like our music relates to them. Knowing what many of our lyrics are about, I think the main message is DO NOT live your life for other people and be yourself.

Charlie – For me, my message comes across live. When we play live, we give everything and have the time of our lives while we do so. In anything you do, you should give it everything, but only do it if you're happy. I would hate to see my favourite bands turn up and not giving it their all.

Thanks a million for your time and one last thing... a few words to say to your supporters/fans..

Thanks for sticking by us and coming out to shows. See you soon!

HANNES HARMS: FLAT BOOMBOX

German-born masters candidate hannes harms from the royal college of art has designed 'thin boom-box', a small speaker which incorporates future technology focused on flat electrical components. by using 0.5mm thin stainless steel, its volume and material are highly reduced, making the methods for the manufacturing process in consumer electronics more sustainable. with acid-etching, the sheet of stainless steel is cut and engraved extremely precisely, allowing for 100% recyclability due to its extractive process. the shape of the product also allows for efficient shipping, enabling the use of envelope style packaging. once purchased, the user would assemble the speaker by bending the metal along pre-scored lines.

Polaroid Z2300

Instant Digital Camera

The 'z2300' instant digital camera by polaroid has just been unveiled at the 2012 CEA (consumer electronics association) line show. The 10-megapixel device features a built-in zink 'zero ink' printer, producing full-colour 2x3-inch prints in under a minute, either in full bleed, with a classic polaroid border, or on a sticker-backed page. a camera setting controls whether every shot is automatically printed, or only images selected after capture by the user.

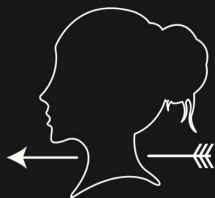

In addition to its printing capacities, the camera stores photographs digitally via SD card. a built-in editing program enables users to review and crop photos on the 3.0-inch LCD screen even before uploading to PC. The 'polaroid z2300' camera is available for pre-order at polaroid, with a retail price of 160 USD and expected ship date of august 2012. Zink paper is sold separately.

About me:

My name is Abigail Kate, also known as AKFX. I am a special effects and fashion make-up artist, I have loved make-up for as long as I can remember.

I first got interested in SFX make-up around the age of 9 after watching a behind the scenes show and now I am lucky enough to be able to make my own monsters come to life.

I love the range that photo-shoots give me to try out different styles of make-up, coming up with something new every time.

I am hoping that by next summer I will have my own range of make-up from natural shades to extreme colours, with a shop opened in Newcastle.

I feel so lucky that I have a job that I love so much, it was always my dream to be doing make-up for photo-shoots, weddings and hopefully some day soon, films and television. I hope everyone enjoys looking at my work.

SILENT DESCENT

Hiya..For all the Teen Spirit readers out there tell us abit about yourselves.

We are a Trance-Metal band from Dartford UK. We've recently released our second album Mind Games in the UK and Japan. We've got 7 members, and one of them is a Gimp. We are also the most racially diverse group to come out of Britain since Dragon Force.

What genre of music would you put yourselves under?

A lot of metal, and a lot of trance, Trance-Metal suits us pretty well. People have come up with some interesting stuff like Melodeth-symphonic-trance or trance-core... but Trance-Metal is our favourite.

And what has been your career highlight to date?

We've played Download fest a few times, but this year's was definitely a highlight! We were the second band to play at the Pepsi Max stage on Friday, after hearing alot of bands got cancelled due to the weather and doors opening late we were really worried we might get to play. The band before us played to a crowd of 20 security guards, but luckily by the time we went on the tent got packed and everyone was well up for it!

Many say touring is all about the 3 Bs.. beer, babes and bad places to sleep.. What has touring really been like?

With the 7 heavy drinkers in the band, one has to take out a mortgage to buy a round!

We are starting our UK tour on July 12th. Planning the tour has been a challenge especially doing it on a budget. We've even considered taking a caravan with us and camp near the venue! We all cannot wait to start it though, its gonna be chaotic!

Your favourite venue/place/festival you've played?

Download 2012 without a doubt! That was by far the biggest crowd we've every played to, Watling lost his shoes crowd surfing during one of the songs, and one of the stage side PA got blown over by the wind, we thought the whole stage was gonna come down on top of us. We've also played at a porn club before, but that story is for another time lol.

If you could collab with one person/band who would it be and why?

It's difficult to narrow it down to just one person! From the top of my head, I'd love to work with the Prodigy or Rob Swire, who can really help blend the electronic and metal elements! Although Rammstein would be epic!

If you could plan your destiny where would you lead yourselves to?

We can never plan it, but we all know where we want to be and are working hard towards it, with a little be of luck, we'll get there.

Any embarrassing things we should know?

Erm, probably alot of weird things, but not much we'd consider embarrassing... Although saying that, we do like to hotbox our studio room with our farts. It gets pretty lethal in there. We've also witnessed Kipster getting a bj..

Why you love Teen Spirit?

Hot girls and awesome music, what more could you want!

What do you want to say to all your fans and supporters out there?

Thanks for all your support so far, and help us keep music alive by coming to ours shows, buy merch and cds!

Printmonkey

L O N D O N

Printmonkey?..Printing..erm..monkeys? I'll tell you what if so then where do you hire them from and how much for! Printmonkey are a independant London based tshirt company with designs to literally die for! Producing unisex items in numerous colours and designs you can really see how much talent and hard work has been put into making this brand one to stand out this summer.

Connecting style and quality Printmonkey range is diverse and unique. Some of my favourites on the mens section being the 'Anchor, Lightning and Space tees all reppin' the unique cyan glare pattern with simple but insane designs. The material itself is light and feels aired on the skin. A perfect summer tee. The womans patterns again are simple but effective and includes croptops and vests in which they are free fitting and great to be worn both casually as well as for a night out. Two in one..what more could you ask for.

Printmonkey is definitely a brand you need to watch out over this year. If their range is getting this good and it hasn't been too long since they've been released into the world, then we'll have to get a cage and cage them up as monkeys are set to take over the world! Big love to Printmonkey and their rad range!

"Clean, sleek but perfect to celebrate 20 years of Adidas Originals!"

Adidas Consortium Baltic Cup 20

We take a look at the classic Baltic Cup that celebrates 20 years of Adidas Originals.

With this sneaker not featuring a guest designer and Adidas taking the full reign on this one this trainer is clean, minimal and sleek. It's a rework from the 1970's and is a tribute to what Adidas really portrays...the 3 stripes! A real clean sneaker!

Hiya..For all the Teen Spirit readers out there tell us a bit about yourselves.

We're 4 guys from London who drive around in a riot van and occasionally make music.

What genre of music would you put yourselves under?

Rock, we've been taking loads of influence from bands like Nirvana recently, also the Strokes. Our new single Animal has that kind of teen spirit vibe.

You must have had some insane experiences..what has been your career high-light to date?

Probably partying with Snoop Dogg in Paris. We were there recording some tracks and somehow ended up in the most VIP club in Paris. Snoop Dogg was there playing for the club owner's birthday party. We had a table next to Flo Rida and Dan stole a bottle of his Dom Pérignon.

Many say touring is all about the 3 Bs.. beer, babes and bad places to sleep.. What has touring really been like?

There have been some events which we probably shouldn't repeat, but yeah tour rules. We've been pretty lucky with places to sleep. I don't remember most of them, but I'm sure they were alright. Once Dan & Ben shared a bed with a family of cockroaches in Paris.

Traveling around you guys will have been to some awesome places.. what was your favourite venue/place/festival you've played?

We went to LA last year for a while. One night Sam & Dan got drunk and ended up playing a set on Hollywood Boulevard at Angels & Kings (Pete Wentz's club)

If you could collab with one person/ band who would it be and why?

Probably the guitarist from the Strokes because Sam couldn't play the solo in Reptilia. If we could just get him into the studio for a few minutes to overdub the solo that would be sick.

When you boys are jamming does the songs come naturally or does it take a while to really get the sound your look- ing for?

We usually write away from jamming. We all learn the song separately, then get together to jam it out until it sounds alright. Then we play that until we get bored of our parts. That's when the song starts to come together

If you could plan your destiny where would you lead yourselves to?

We want to be bigger than Jesus, but not quite as big as The Beatles.

Any embarrassing things we should know?

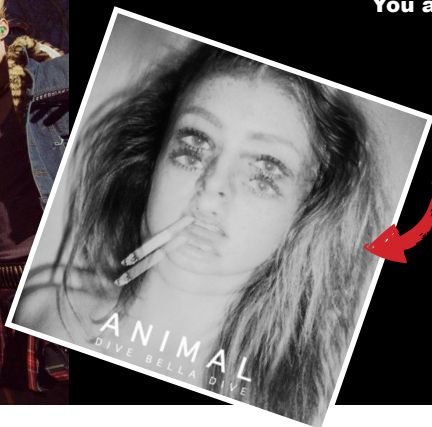

In our new music video (for Animal) there's a split second shot of Sam & Ben making out. We also had to reshoot all of Barnaby's parts because he was too wasted when we actually had the party. Go check it out! See if you can find the bromance.

That good they put their signature on it!
These tees mix the two freshest crazes this summer.. tie dyes and pockets!

These insane tees both feel and look good. Made out of the highest quality cotton not only do they feel durable they also have the signs of home made quality. These boys have really put the extra effort into getting their summer range top notch and if your wardrobe doesn't have one of these in yet.. then your wardrobe isnt upto scratch yet!

Big love to the Signature crew as these tees are next level!

Mixing the freshest tie dye tee's in the business! That is definitely Signature
Clothing!

Dope colouring on the pockets!

Signature are killing this season and if you want to get yourself a tee with a difference we'd definitely recommend buying one of these..fresh..unique and made out of love.. Signature clothing is the one!
